Information security according to TISAX®

The Weischer company is certified according to TISAX. TISAX's checking and exchange mechanism enables the participating companies to jointly recognize and approve the checking results in order to ensure the information security. The certification takes place on the basis of fulfilling a catalogue of requirements for information security, which is supported by important aspects of the international ISO/IEC 27001 standard.